

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election should be censured. The FCC should send a clear warning to the corporation, telling them that their broadcast licenses are at risk should they force their affiliates to air partisan political statements as if they were National Geographic specials.

Since Sinclair uses our public airwaves free of charge, it is up to them to prove themselves worthy of doing so.